

SNA of SC

INDUSTRY PARTNER OF THE YEAR

2021-2022

Linda Benyo

*L*inda Benyo has been working in the K-12 Industry for over 35 years in several states and in different capacities from School Food Service Director to Food Service Buyer to the K-12 Brokerage and Manufacturing Business. It has been a fun journey and education throughout every step and is currently working with DeWafelbakkers as a Sales Director for the Eastern half of the US.

She has been calling on South Carolina customers for almost 25 years in the brokerage business and also from the manufacturers side. Have enjoyed the business relationships and friendships that have been developed over the years with South Carolina Directors. “South Carolina has a special group of talented Directors and staff who are passionate about School Nutrition, and I am so happy to partner with them in feeding the students!”

Linda currently resides in Charleston, South Carolina. She is the proud mother of two girls; one living in Atlanta and one is in her final year at Clemson. She will soon be an empty nester.

Thank You Linda for your continued support of the School Nutrition Association of South Carolina.