South Carolina Manager of the Year 2022

Lisa Hayes is the Foodservice Manager at Liberty High School in Liberty SC. She has been with the School District of Pickens County for 12 years. Her passion is Child Nutrition. She and her staff always think outside of the box and try new, innovative, creative and fun menu options. Lisa strives to engage students every day, she knows every student's name and interacts with them one on one daily. Hard work and dedication is second nature to her. She has a true servants heart, and it shows in her day to day operations.
