

2022 SNA of SC Hall of Fame Inductee

MRS. SHARON HUNT

Mrs. Sharon Hunt has been a dedicated leader in the school food service industry for nearly 25 years. She started her career in child nutrition with the Greenville County School District, then as an Education Associate at the State Office, and has been the passionate Director for Anderson School District Five Culinary Program for the past ten years.

Sharon is recognized as one who has created an excellent culinary vision in Anderson School District Five. She has moved the “needle” from a school lunch program to a Culinary Program. She is known to provide extensive training opportunities to the staff to make it a premier Culinary Program. She exposes her staff to national speakers such as Maureen Mulvaney, Kern Halls, Dennis Snow, Logan Weber, and Debbie Liefer, to name a few.

Sharon’s dedication to the School Nutrition Association of South Carolina is commendable. She served in various roles on the Executive Board for over five years and served two consecutive years as President. Her representation in each of those roles demonstrated her professionalism, passion, and commitment to the children of South Carolina for generations to come.

One of her two nominators stated, “Mrs. Hunt’s greatest strength is that she strives for perfection for herself and for her staff each and every day. In addition to performing her job at an exemplary level, Sharon demonstrates an extraordinary commitment to Anderson Five and the SNA of SC.” Both nominators agree, Sharon’s skills, knowledge, willingness to help others, and dedication to our Association and the community makes her a great nominee for the SNA of SC Hall of Fame.
